FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 19, 2004

Orlando, FL – John R Buonpane, Producer/Director of The Wizard Company copped two Bronze awards in the 25th Annual Telly Awards. The Telly Awards is the premier award honoring outstanding local, regional and national cable TV commercials and programs, as well as the finest video and film productions. Over 10,000 entries are received each year, representing the world's most respected advertising agencies, production companies, television stations, cable operators and corporate video departments.

The first award was for a documentary style video in the Recruitment Video category, which was produced for Florida Hospital Waterman. The second was in the Health and Medicine category. Produced for Yachter Family Chiropractic, the video was a testimonial on the achievements of the facility. Local company, Yard Media, created the animated title and graphics and local musician, Lisa Firestone, designed the original music.

As an independent producer and creator of The Wizard Company in Central Florida, Mr Buonpane is committed to helping nonprofit organizations to get out their message. A three-time EMMY nominee, five-time VISION and six-time TELLY award winner among others, this most recent win bears witness to his commitment to quality.
